

Day 25

ClickTrackProfit

Arguably one of the most important lessons you can ever learn when it comes to building any kind of business...

Discovering your 3 vital functions and focusing on them!

But also....Delegating the rest to someone else that is much better at the task than you are.

For example....

Not good at programming – Hire someone!

Ad copy isn't your thing? Hire someone!

It's amazing what happens when you free up the stuff you aren't great at and then focus on what you ARE great at!

When you have completed this task: _____ Check it off!

Value isn't just a buzz word!

We hear this all the time....If you deliver VALUE in your emails, people will click!

But what does that really mean?

When's the last time someone woke up and said...I can't wait to read YOUR emails!!!!

If we structured our emails like that though....What would that do for our businesses?

So approach every email you send as an opportunity to WOW someone!

And heck, they may even say one day.....'I can't wait to see what they send next!'

That's powerful email marketing!

When you have completed this task: _____ Check it off!

Plus1Success

Law of attraction!!!

Disclaimer...We don't believe you sit around THINKING about a million bucks and it's magically appear in your hand.

But what law of attraction is....The more you think about something, you start developing strategies and plans to help you achieve it.

So turn off the TV, pick up a book and fill your mind with things you WANT to attract in your life.

Thinking better thoughts is the key to achieving that!

When you have completed this task: _____ Check it off!
